The Dean stated that Miss Blackburn and Miss Fleming

Had done work to complete in the summer before they could receive their Certificates.

It was found upon inquiry that in the case of Gates, work done in Latin in Marietta, Ohio had been accepted, while the same Latin taken in Rollins had been credited with D, and would withhold his Certificate. After discussion, a motion was made to "accept his certificate of work done in Marietta." This was carried.

Reference was made to a vote passed by the Faculty May 7, 1907, whereby it was recorded on the Minutes that Miss Mary Jane Blackman had completed her Course on the School of Expression and would be graduated from the School of Expression, as soon as her Course in the Academy was completed.

That the President and Faculty of Rollins College reconsider the decision read in Chapel and release the three young men from the sentence pronounced "xxx" if the members of the Faculty felt that the act was such that the punishment commensurate for the present be removed and that during that week they be allowed full privileges."

The Dean stated in this connection that Dr. Pettis had already left to go into camp and that Mr. Donnell was to leave on Monday. On motion of Miss Wilkins, it was voted "that action on this Petition be deferred till the President's return and that the Committee be informed of the reasons for this action."

A letter from Dr. Donnell was read stating that his son be restored to full privileges, until he should leave town. The Faculty decided to defer action on this matter until action was taken upon the Petition.

The Dean stated that Messrs. Haskin, Rossett and Worthington Blackman had been told that they should receive the following punishment for having removed the tongue from the Chapel Bell:-

"That they should be confined to the limits of the campus - the area enclosed by the fence - for the remainder of the year; that all social privileges of any sort should be taken from them; that they should not be allowed to go in the vicinity of Chapel; that Worthington Blackman should be allowed on the campus only to attend prayers and recitations; and that he should leave the campus immediately after prayers, unless detained by class work. No one of these three students should be allowed on the athletic field at any time, or in, or upon the lake. Failure to observe these rules would result in expulsion for the remainder of the year."

Adjourned
 Christen Lusk,
 Secretary.
